The parties through their respective counsel, John B. Keating for Plaintiff Marie Deschene and Baldwin J. Lee of Allen Matkins Leck Gamble & Mallory LLP for Defendant Oracle Corporation, seek by stipulation and order to further confirm the prior short discovery cut-off extension agreement which was requested by Plaintiff's counsel in light of circumstances of an unanticipated medical condition in Plaintiff's counsel's family and was previously reached and confirmed in writing on August 16, 2005.

This stipulation and order confirming the agreement under which counsel have been conducting discovery has not interfered with the other pre trial scheduling dates set forth in the case management order and is not anticipated to do so. The parties hereby confirm their prior understanding and stipulation and request the Court's order thereto as follows:

- 1) The cut-off for non-expert discovery is extended for two weeks to September 29, 2005; and
- 2) Defendant will have additional time until October 10, 2005 to conduct discovery regarding Plaintiff's health care providers and/or medical issues.
